Insurance Law

Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants excels in insurance law, offering unparalleled legal services shaped by decades of expertise in UAE insurance law.

Insurance Lawyers
Our skilled attorneys, well-versed in all aspects of insurance law, collaborate with insurance companies to assess liability for claims made by policyholders. We collect evidence from various sources, providing comprehensive advice and negotiating and drafting insurance policies and contracts. Our commitment extends to recommending policy changes to align with the law and protect against invalid claims. We also handle reinsurance disputes and investigate damages for late payments or third-party claims.

For insured parties, we represent policyholders in insurance claim disputes, ensuring their rights are protected throughout the process.

Why Choose Us?
Our talented lawyers possess an investigative nature, enabling them to piece together events and understand the intricacies of claims. Strong communication skills and adaptability are crucial in dealing with diverse backgrounds and professions, allowing us to navigate complex and sensitive situations with fairness and reason. With an in-depth understanding of contract law, we can draft precise insurance policies, identify breaches, and leverage finance and financial risk knowledge in handling commercial insurance cases.
