Rental and Tenancy

Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants specialize in offering comprehensive support and guidance on rental disputes. Our team of experienced rental dispute attorneys is dedicated to effectively addressing and resolving issues related to rental and tenancy matters. Understanding the rights and responsibilities of both tenants and landlords is crucial in navigating through rental disputes, and our lawyers provide a thorough knowledge of relevant laws and the most advantageous strategies for your specific case.

Rental & Tenancy Lawyers
Benefit from the extensive expertise of our attorneys at Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants across the UAE. Our proficient and skilled legal professionals are well-acquainted with all facets of rental and tenancy, delivering top-notch legal advice in Dubai for clients both locally and internationally.

Our rental dispute attorneys focus on efficiently handling cases, ensuring swift resolutions without unnecessary time and financial burdens. While conflicts are typically adjudicated at your specific emirate's Rental Disputes Settlement Centre, our attorneys are adept at preemptively resolving issues before the need to engage with the RDSC arises. Drawing on a deep understanding of landlord-tenant laws, our lawyers leverage offices, rental calculators, online databases, and case trackers to assist you in navigating rental disputes and securing favorable outcomes.

Professional Services Include:
Our versatile team excels in providing rental and tenancy assistance, specializing in dispute resolution. With decades of successful client representation, we offer legal services in various critical areas, including:

- Rent Increase
- Eviction due to Failure to Pay Rent
- Demand for Rental Deposit
- Maintenance Failure
- Sublease without landlord's consent

Trust Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants for expert legal support in navigating the complexities of rental and tenancy matters.

Maritime Law

Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants, renowned for its expertise in maritime law, also referred to as admiralty law, is dedicated to handling legal matters concerning nautical affairs, disputes, and offenses. This specialized body of law governs both domestic and private international legal aspects of maritime activities, particularly those of a commercial nature.

Distinct from the Law of the Sea, maritime law is overseen by the International Maritime Organization, ensuring that maritime agreements remain current and are amended as needed.

Maritime Lawyers
With a wealth of experience in maritime law in Dubai and the UAE, Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants offers exemplary legal services. Our adept lawyers are skilled in drafting and overseeing shipping contracts, resolving disputes, managing insurance claims, and representing clients with efficiency and friendliness. We prioritize placing our clients at the forefront of our endeavors, delivering results and fostering enduring client relationships.

As a leading law firm in Dubai, we skillfully handle wet and dry shipping issues, providing legal advice and support on matters related to ports, offshore installations, shipping terminals, and smaller vessels. Our services extend to clients seeking vessel flagging or re-flagging, reclassification, or registration under new ownership. Our success in maritime law services encompasses:

- Shipping Insurance: Advising and arranging the appropriate shipping insurance to ensure compliance with all relevant laws.
- Maritime Collisions: Representing clients in cases of accidents and collisions at sea, offering swift and efficient advice on how to proceed.
- Transport Logistics: Navigating the legalities surrounding commercial cargo and freight shipping with our specialized expertise.
- Vessel Seizures: Assisting clients with seized ships, providing knowledgeable maritime law attorneys to find resolutions.
- Wrecking & Salvaging: Overseeing the legal permission process for clients requiring wrecking or salvage from start to finish.

Professional Services Include:
Our versatile team excels in the practice of maritime law, offering successful services in areas such as:

- Shipping Insurance
- Maritime Collisions
- Transport Logistics
- Vessel Seizures
- Wrecking & Salvaging

Trust Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants for comprehensive legal support in navigating the intricacies of maritime law.

Business Set up

Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants specializes in assisting clients in establishing and managing businesses in the Middle East while ensuring compliance with local regulations.

Our corporate attorneys, in collaboration with industry experts, provide tailored services to guide clients through the legal intricacies of business setup, minimizing legal risks.

Business Set-up Lawyers

Benefit from the extensive experience of our legal team across the UAE at Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants. Our friendly and skilled attorneys excel in all aspects of business set-up, offering dedicated legal advice in Dubai and beyond. Whether working with local clients facing international business set-up disputes or assisting overseas clients, we provide comprehensive legal support.

Our experienced business set-up agents offer services for company formation and registration in Dubai, covering various business and company-related needs throughout the UAE. We provide end-to-end business establishment services as a one-stop solution for new businesses.

Mainland Set-up

In Free Zones, which offer excellent air, sea, and road links, businesses can establish an ideal base for operations in Dubai and beyond. Key features of Mainland set-up include approval of business licenses by the Department of Economic Development in Dubai (DED), the ability to trade freely across Dubai, eligibility for government contracts, potential for unlimited employee visas, and reduced nationality restrictions.

Free Zone Set-up

Our experienced team assists in setting up businesses in Mainland Dubai, offering ease of setup with minimal paperwork and duration. Features of Free Zone set-up include 100% foreign ownership, repatriation of capital and profits, exemption of import and export duties, no corporate tax (if trading within the Free Zone only), and a low capital requirement starting from AED 1000.

Offshore Set-up

For offshore companies, operational freedom, 100% foreign ownership, benefits of Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement with 115 countries, the option to purchase real estate in approved areas, low set-up costs, minimal capital requirements, and access to a stable and business-friendly legal system are key advantages. Offshore companies can open multi-currency accounts in the UAE and conduct business abroad but cannot engage in activities with UAE residents or have a physical presence within the UAE.

Professional Services Include:

Our multidisciplinary team excels in business set-up, offering friendly and knowledgeable company formation services, including:

- Legal Advice
- Regulation Compliance
- Mainland Setup
- Free Zone Setup

- Offshore Setup

Choose Naval Salem Advocates and Legal Consultants for expert support in the complexities of business establishment, ensuring a smooth and legally compliant process for your venture.